

Please do not mess with Wisconsin's no-call list program. If it is weakened, we as consumers will suffer. I love the peace and quiet at home not having these annoying calls. In addition, I refuse to do business with any company (banking or others) that calls me at home. If this is allowed again, I will screen all calls with caller ID and simply not answer them.